

Everything Becomes a Prayer

O my Jesus, I accept and bear with submission whatever suffering God will send me today, for love of You, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Obviously, this is one of our prayers before Mass. God has permitted Fr. Peter and me to get sick with the flu this week. I also have pneumonia. We have been offering our sufferings in prayer for your growth is holiness. Thanks for all your prayers!

Because of our weakness and our desire to not get anyone sick, there are no daily Masses this week. However, you could attend a Communion Service at St. Anne on Monday at 8:30 a.m. and a Rosary Service at St. Bernard on Wednesday at 8:30 a.m.

Priests for this Weekend

Thank God for the generosity of two priests who chose to take our places this weekend. Please welcome Fr. Jim Thermos and Fr. Brady Wagner, both priests from our seminary in Denver. Fr. Thermos and Fr. Michael got ordained together with 9 others on May 13, 2006.

We Finally Received Some Calendars

There will be a few placed at each church this weekend. If we can get any more, we will.

A Praying Church is a Healthy Church

We invite you to pray the Power Novena to Our Lady of Good Success, beginning on January 24. Copies are available this weekend at all the Masses. Also, you can find it on our website.

Gems of Wisdom from the Diary of Saint Faustina

1048. Then, in an instant, I was caught up to stand near Jesus, and I stood on the altar next to the Lord Jesus, and my spirit was filled with a happiness so great that I am unable to comprehend it or write about it. A profound peace as well as repose filled my soul. Jesus bent toward me and said with great kindness, What is it you desire, My daughter? And I answered, "I desire worship and glory be given to Your mercy." I already am receiving worship by the institution and celebration of this Feast; what else do you desire? I then looked at the immense crowd worshipping The Divine Mercy and I said to the Lord, "Jesus, bless all those who are gathered to give glory to You and to venerate Your infinite mercy." Jesus made a sign of the cross with His hand, and this blessing was reflected in the souls like a flash of light. My spirit was engulfed in His love. I felt as if I had dissolved and disappeared completely in God. When I came to myself, a profound peace was flooding my soul, and an extraordinary understanding of many things was communicated to my intellect, an understanding that had not been granted me previously.

1049. I am immensely happy, although I am the least of all; and I would not change anything of what God has given me. I would not want to change places even with a Seraph, as regards the interior knowledge of God which He himself has given me. The intimate knowledge I have of the Lord is such as no creature can comprehend, particularly, the depth of His mercy that envelops me. I am happy with everything You give me.

Incense will be used:

To be determined. We will not start it up again until February.
