Priests Meeting with Bishops and Priests of the Archdiocese of Denver

- Fr. Michael and Fr. Peter have a mandatory “Priest Convocation” out of the area.
- The office is closed on Tuesday, April 17.
- There will be Mass on Monday and Friday. There will be a Rosary Service on Wednesday at St. Bernard. See the Mass intention schedule at the bottom right.

Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal (ACA)

So much of what we hope to accomplish as a people of God is contingent upon a successful and fruitful ACA. Please complete your pledge card that was sent to your home and mail it to the Appeal Office as soon as possible. When determining your level of charity, always remember that our Lord will never be outdone in generosity.

Next weekend we will show the ACA video before Mass begins. It is less than four minutes. Here are the links, if you want to watch it in advance:

Gems of Wisdom from the Diary of Saint Faustina

1056. At eleven o’clock Jesus said to me, My host, you are refreshment for My tormented Heart. I thought, after these words, that my heart would burn up. And He brought me into such close intimacy with Himself that my heart was espoused to His Heart in a loving union, and I could feel the faintest stir of His Heart and He, of mine. The fire of my created love was joined to the ardor of His eternal love. This one grace surpasses all others in its immensity. His Trinitarian Being enveloped me entirely, and I am totally immersed in Him. My littleness is, as it were, wrestling with this Immortal Mighty One. I am immersed in incomprehensible love and incomprehensible torture because of His Passion. All that concerns His Being is imparted to me also.
