

Gems of Wisdom from the Diary of Saint Faustina

1065. + My Jesus, support me when difficult and stormy days come, days of testing, days of ordeal, when suffering and fatigue begin to oppress my body and my soul. Sustain me, Jesus, and give me strength to bear suffering. Set a guard upon my lips that they may address no word of complaint to creatures. Your most merciful Heart is all my hope. I have nothing for my defense but only Your mercy; in it lies all my trust.

1069. March 29, 1937. During meditation today, I saw the Lord in great beauty, and He said to me, Peace be to you, My daughter. My whole soul trembled with love for Him and I said, “O Lord, although I love You with all my heart, please do not appear to me, because my spiritual director has told me that these sudden appearances of Yours arouse the suspicion that You could be an illusion. And although I love You more than my own life, and I know that You are my Lord and God, who are communing with me, I must above all be obedient to my confessor.”

Jesus listened to my words with gravity and kindness and spoke these words to me: Tell your confessor that I commune with your soul in such an intimate manner because you do not steal My gifts, and this is why I pour all these graces upon your soul, because I know that you will not hoard them for yourself. But as a sign that his prudence is agreeable to Me, you shall not see Me, and I will not appear to you in this way until you have given him an account of what I have just said.

MTYR is in each and every one of us; we just have to realize we are so much more. With the Holy Spirit in us we are already equipped to do God’s work. The Holy Spirit who sanctifies the people of God through ministry and the sacraments, gives the faithful special gifts in order that individuals can go out into their community administering grace to others. In this we must think of ourselves as missionary disciples, not someone else. We! Discipleship happens through real life interaction. It’s right outside your front door. You are MTYR with the Holy Spirit guiding you into everyday discipleship.
